PMP Certification (6th Edition)

What is PMP certification, and why should I take this class?
We're glad you asked! The Project Management Professional (PMP) credential is the most important industry-recognized certification for project managers. You should take this class if you want to demonstrate that you have the experience, education and competency to lead and direct projects.

What will I learn?
You'll learn to better align your work with the skills required of project managers and develop growing levels of competency in project management, which can be applied to on-the-job training.

What are the prerequisites?
Completing this class fulfills the project management education hours required to apply for the PMP certification.
To apply for the PMP certification exam, you need to have either:
- a secondary degree (high school diploma, associate's degree, or global equivalent) with at least 5 years of the project management experience, with 7500 documentable hours leading and directing projects and 35 hours of project management education, OR
- a four year degree (bachelor's degree or global equivalent) and at least 3 years of project management experience, with 4500 documentable hours leading and directing projects and 35 hours of project management education.
- Visit the Project Management Institute (PMI) webpage for detailed information and requirements to obtain the PMP certification: http://www.pmi.org/Certification/Project-Management-Professional-PMP.aspx
- Check out an overview of PMI's certifications here: http://www.pmi.org/-/media/pmi/documents/public/pdf/certifications/overview-guide-and-brochure.pdf

Can I take this class online?
Yes, you can! The class is designed to be offered online and is available 24/7. The best feature is the instructor assigned to you – on day 1 – for the duration of your class. They are 100% confident that if you follow their direction, you will become PMP-certified. Instructors are available via text, phone, or email.

How long will it take to finish?
Many students complete the class in as little as three months, but we give you almost twice that time so you can work at a pace that fits into your current commitments.

Who should take this class?
Anyone who is an experienced project manager responsible for all aspects of project delivery, including leading and directing cross-functional teams, should take this class.

Will my tuition assistance program benefits cover the cost?
Yes, if you have enough funds in your tuition assistance account, there are no out-of-pocket expenses, and that includes the PMP certification exam. Wow! You can get an internationally-recognized certification at no cost!

How much does it cost?
The class tuition is $2,045, and your tuition assistance program covers the cost of this class, the materials, and one certification exam voucher.

When does the class start?
This class starts most Mondays. Register early to get the start date that works for you.
